

Scottish Accessible Information Forum elearning modules

Sources of Further Information

General Guidance

- SAIF Publications cover everything from the General Principles of Accessible Information to Electronic Accessibility and Easy-read. They can be downloaded from:
www.saifscotland.org.uk/information-and-advice
- The Social Model of Disability, by Grant Carson (SAIF, 2009). This booklet can be downloaded from the SAIF Website and from other sources. It is no longer available in hardcopy.

Colour Contrast Guidance

- RNIB Guidance on using good colour contrast:
<http://goo.gl/ZHqVv2>
- Colour Contrast Checker : <http://goo.gl/9iDc1n>

The Equality Act 2010 Guidance

United Kingdom Government: <http://goo.gl/XeBIKf>

Equality and Human Rights Commission

- Equality Act Guidance: <http://goo.gl/Js9tiS>
- Guidance for Service providers: <http://goo.gl/Y1YTBb>
- Public Sector Equality Duty: <http://goo.gl/U9Z4kk>
- Guidance for Service Users: <http://goo.gl/VTLii9>

Royal National Institute for Blind People (RNIB) Equality Act Guidance:
<http://goo.gl/AT4QsK>

Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) Guide: <http://goo.gl/1zuvzm>

Disability Facts and Figures

- Office of Disability Issues: an overview of UK disability statistics:
<http://goo.gl/IVVUmG>

Scottish Accessible Information Forum (SAIF) 2013

- Public Health Information for Scotland, Disability: Key Data Sources.: <http://goo.gl/mea9qb>

Accessible electronic documents

- Video clip on using Styles in MS Office 2007: <http://goo.gl/MxjUKZ>
- Adobe Accessibility Guide on writing accessible Word documents and converting them to Accessible PDFs. Choose the Adobe Acrobat version installed on your computer. <http://goo.gl/ZJJDkN>
- JISC (Joint Information Systems Technology) tutorials on all aspects of producing accessible documents. <http://goo.gl/FAIHtO>
- All computer applications give guidance on creating accessible documents using styles etc.